

Trade Shows and Promotions

The entertainers of Mystique spend much of their time and energy promoting and marketing products for companies at trade shows, conventions, and on-premise promotions. Review our extensive client list and see exciting live photos of our tradeshow and promotional entertainers in action:

What is the biggest problem for trade show exhibitors? Gathering potential leads and driving traffic into their booths! Trade show entertainment or attractions will draw attendees into your booth, stop the traffic, and most importantly... deliver your marketing message!

Mystique Productions specializes in trade show entertainment - from large booth presentations/shows to a single performer attracting attendees and potential customers! Having entertainment at your exhibit will keep potential clients in your booth longer, deliver your marketing message and turn each potential client over to your sales and marketing reps! Our talented cast of entertainers are nationally experienced in:
